PLANNING A FUNERAL MASS

Meeting

MONDAY, MAY 20, 2024

Time 1PM, Rectory Meeting Room

Pre-planning one's funeral mass is a practical way of conveying your exact wishes in advance of need. Today more people are recognizing that planning a funeral in advance provides peace of mind and demonstrates love and consideration for their family. It is a thoughtful decision that reduces the stress of indecision and uncertainty when death occurs. Funeral mass pre-planning is a natural part of estate planning. In Pre Planning your funeral mass YOU TAKE CONTROL. In advance you communicate to your loved ones the scripture readings, hymns, and prayers that best capture your particular beliefs. You can identify preferences for honorary pall bearers, offertory gift bearers, scripture readers, and who it is you want to offer a eulogy.

The pre planning session will be held Monday, May 20th at 1 pm in the rectory meeting room. Pre registration would help with materials but is not necessary. For information call Sister Kathleen at 718-631-4804 ex 6

Love is the Guide

This Week's Readings at Mass

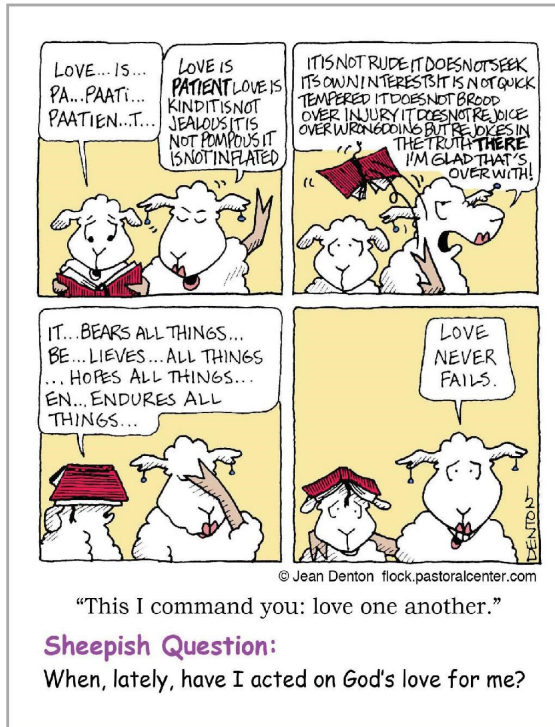

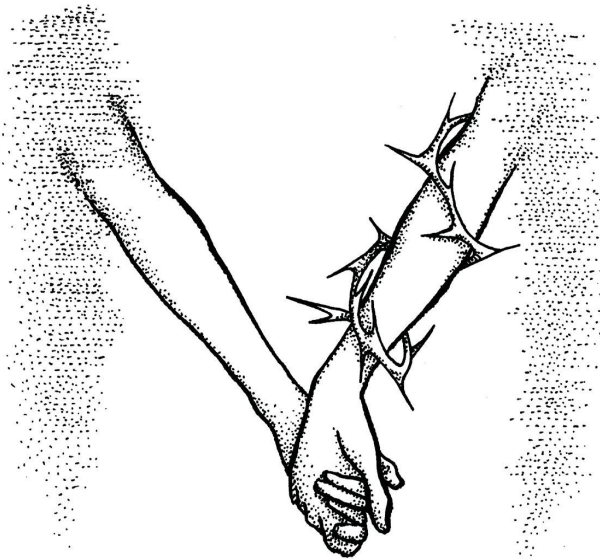

- ▶ Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48 - Peter in Caesarea
- ▶ 1 John 4:7-10 - God's love and ours
- ▶ John 15:9-17 - A disciple's love

This week, we hear a Gospel reading with Jesus' invitation to "remain in my love" and to "love one another as I love you." He doesn't spell out endless rules ("Do this." "Don't do that.") which we need to memorize and follow in order to do what is right. Instead, his invitation is simply to focus on remaining connected to him ("remain in me") and letting all of our actions flow from a commitment to loving others as he loved us.

It is an invitation for a mature follower. Just as we need to spell out many simple rules to help younger children understand right from wrong, with "younger" disciples more rules or "commandments" are helpful. Feed the hungry. Clothe the naked. Pray for your enemies. Forgive those who have hurt you.

There is nothing wrong with following a list of religious commandments as we learn how to be faithful disciples. At a certain point, though, our faith needs to mature to take into account more complex situations—the gray areas between the black-and-white, or simple right and wrong. Jesus is asking us to go beyond what the rules say and commands us to respond in love to everyone, just as he did.

Jesus gives us a lot of respect here, insisting that we are his friends, not his students, his servants, or his slaves, when we love one another as he does. Often Christians fall into the habit of relating to God or Jesus as a child to a parent, but Jesus suggests a more equal relationship. God will always be God, and we will always be human, but Jesus still invites us to be in friendship with him.

Questions of the Week

- 1 Think of a situation in which the difference between right and wrong might be blurred but you are asked to respond with love rather than holding strictly to what a law or commandment says. How does it challenge you to be more Christ-like?
- 2 Have you ever thought of yourself as being friends with Jesus? How so? If not, what is your reaction to this invitation?
