PLANNING A FUNERAL MASS Meeting

MONDAY, MAY 20, 2024

Time 1PM, Rectory Meeting Room

Pre-planning one's funeral mass is a practical way of conveying your exact wishes in advance of need. Today more people are recognizing that planning a funeral in advance provides peace of mind and demonstrates love and consideration for their family. It is a thoughtful decision that reduces the stress of indecision and uncertainty when death occurs. Funeral mass pre-planning is a natural part of estate planning. In Pre Planning your funeral mass YOU TAKE CONTROL. In advance you communicate to your loved ones the scripture readings, hymns, and prayers that best capture your particular beliefs. You can identify preferences for honorary pall bearers, offertory gift bearers, scripture readers, and who it is you want to offer a eulogy. The pre planning session will be held Monday, May 20th at 1 pm in the rectory meeting room. Pre registration would help with materials but is not necessary.

Called to Remain

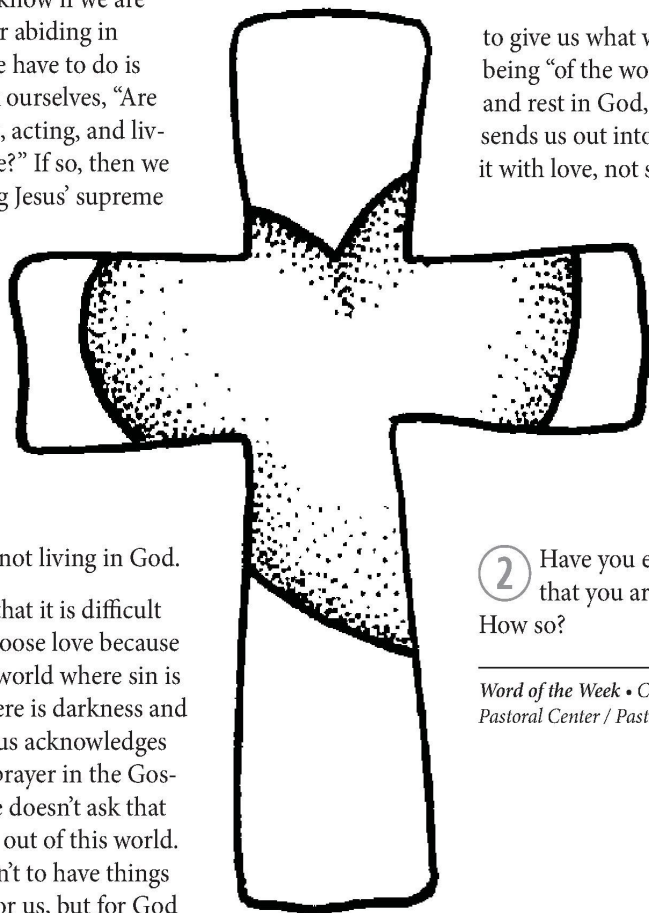

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26 - Choosing Matthias
- ▶ 1 John 4:11-16 - God is love
- ▶ John 17:11b-19 - Prayer for all believers

Today we read from the letter of 1 John and the Gospel of John. In the first letter, John makes the simplest of all statements: "God is love." He reminds his readers that we are called to remain in love, just as Jesus has been calling his disciples to do during the last few Sunday Gospel readings. The theme continues: we are to remain in Jesus, Jesus remains in us, and Jesus remains in the Father. Some translations use the word "abide" instead of remain, but the meaning is the same. We are to stay centered and grounded in Jesus who is love because God is love.

How do we know if we are remaining or abiding in Jesus? All we have to do is honestly ask ourselves, "Are we speaking, acting, and living with love?" If so, then we are following Jesus' supreme command to love one another. If our word or actions are not loving, then we are not living in God.

Jesus knew that it is difficult to always choose love because we live in a world where sin is a reality. There is darkness and evil, and Jesus acknowledges that. In his prayer in the Gospel today, he doesn't ask that God take us out of this world. The point isn't to have things made easy for us, but for God to give us what we need to be in this world without being "of the world." It is yet another call to remain and rest in God, not in the things of this world. Jesus sends us out into the world so that we can transform it with love, not so that it will transform us.

Questions of the Week

- 1 Do you know anyone who is not a Catholic or a Christian but still behaves as a follower of Jesus would because he/she is rooted in love? How do you see God at work in that person?
- 2 Have you ever had the experience of feeling that you are in this world yet not of this world? How so?
